Unit 2: Jesus Calls for Justice and Mercy

July 1st – “Parable of the Unforgiving Servant” (Matthew 18:21-35)

⇒ Golden Text - Matthew 18:33 (AMP) - “And should you not have had pity and mercy on your fellow attendant, as I had pity and mercy on you?”

- ◇ Facts: to see that Christlike forgiveness has no limits.
- ◇ Principle: to learn to forgive others just as Jesus has forgiven us.
- ◇ Application: to be prepared to forgive others without reservation.

There was the great day of accounting. This is a day that lies out in the future for every man. It is both the summons of death and the summons to stand before God to be judged. It is the death and the Day of Judgment that every man must face. Note the two bases for judgment.

- 1) The first basis of judgment is God's forgiveness. God's forgiveness is provided in Christ and is always available. Christ “is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.”
- 2) The second basis of judgment is man's wickedness.

July 8th – “Jesus Criticizes Unjust Leaders” (Matthew 23:1-8, 23-26)

⇒ Golden Text: Matthew 23:2-3 (NLT) – “The teachers of religious law and the Pharisees are the official interpreters of the law of Moses. So practice and obey whatever they tell you, but don't follow their example. For they don't practice what they teach.”

- ◇ Facts: to understand why the Lord spoke out against these religious leaders.
- ◇ Principle: to understand that God's attitude toward hypocritical religion has not changed and never will.
- ◇ Application: to resolve never to enter into the sins of selfishness or hypocrisy.

False religion is a religion of hypocrisy. However, there is a fact that must be noted: not all religion is false, even when it is taught by a false teacher. Christ says, “Observe, obey the truth of what they say, in so far as it is God's Word; but do not follow after their works.” Note several things.

- 1) Jesus is condemning false religion and teachers, but not the truth. False teachers can and do teach some truth. The truth is to be obeyed no matter who teaches it.

- 2) Jesus is saying that teaching the truth does not mean that a person is acceptable to God. Being acceptable to God depends upon one thing and one thing alone: living the truth.
- 3) We must separate the office from the officer, the ministry from the minister, the church from the people, the truth from the teaching, the doctrine from the practice. The spirits must be tried.
- 4) Jesus is saying that the claims of religion and of men must not be allowed to lead us. The doctrine, morality, and discipline of religion and men may be commendable; on the other hand, both religion and men may be false.

July 15th – “The Widow and the Unjust Judge” (Luke 18:1-8)

⇒ Golden Text: Luke 18:7-8 (AMP) – “And will not [our just] God defend and protect and avenge His elect (His chosen ones), who cry to Him day and night? Will He defer them and delay help on their behalf? I tell you, He will defend and protect and avenge them speedily. However, when the Son of Man comes, will He find [persistence in] faith on the earth?”

- ◇ Facts: to understand that God desires for us to pray frequently.
- ◇ Principle: to recognize that every word from the Lord Jesus is of vital importance to our spiritual lives today.
- ◇ Application: to pray consistently and persistently, knowing that God knows us and will act faithfully on our behalf.

The great tragedy is this: in the last days few will persevere in prayer and faith. Most will fall away. This is the implication of Christ. Note three significant facts.

- 1) Faith is the one thing Christ is after. He wants trust and belief in Him, in His Word, in His promises and warnings.
- 2) The greatest evidence of faith is persevering prayer. Faith and persevering prayer are tied together. The person who truly believes will be talking and sharing, communing and fellowshiping, living and moving with God day and night. The person will be praying always.
- 3) There will be few men of faith and prayer when He returns to earth. There will be

The Promises of God
In five translations

Psalm 34:18 (KJV) – “The LORD is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit.”

Psalm 34:18 (MSG) – “If your heart is broken, you'll find GOD right there; if you're kicked in the gut, he'll help you catch your breath.”

Psalm 34:18 (AMP) – “The Lord is close to those who are of a broken heart and saves such as are crushed with sorrow for sin and are humbly and thoroughly penitent.”

Psalm 34:18 (ASV) – “Jehovah is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart, and saveth such as are of a contrite spirit.”
